

Dear PSA Members,

I hope the end of summer brings you a warm blast of ideas for creative venues in the fall. Thanks to Jackie and Bill Steimke for hosting a very nice end of summer party August 20th for about 50 partygoers. I have conducted several Focus meetings with committees, which has helped to draw attention to crucial goals and methods.

Each year, Pasadena Society of Artists holds new member screenings. The next screening is set for November 18, 2016. Candidates for membership should complete a New Member Application and contact our Director of Membership, Marion Dies. The application fee is $15.00. Current PSA members are encouraged to recommend fellow artists for membership. Direct anyone to our homepage and click on JOIN PSA.

Each candidate will be required to present three of his or her best works of art, which were created in the past two years. The candidate should also submit an artist statement with each work. As you know, the benefits of PSA membership are many and varied. They include: (1) exhibitions in group shows, (2) artistic growth through peer commentary in art salons, (3) participation in art-focused programs and demonstrations, (4) networking with fellow artists, and (5) enjoying our reputation as a prominent 91 year old art society.

PSA Members, if you're on Instagram, please follow us, and tag us in your posts! @pasadenasocietyofartists. If you aren't on Instagram but want to view our page on the web, go to instagram.com/pasadenasocietyofartists. And please share our Instagram info on your Facebook page, your blog, or your art email newsletter so that others may follow us!

Once we get the accounts linked together, Morgan's Instagram posts will automatically pop up on the FB page. FB is a good place to link to articles online, post more photos, and provide more detailed info. It's also a place where PSA members can comment and connect. Instagram is more about visuals and quick info.

Exhibitions – We have discontinued our exhibitions at Women's City Club, because of the feedback regarding a variety of facility issues and new installation rules. The Exhibitions Committee continues to seek new quality venues, so if you know of a suitable place, please contact Larry Rodgers or Susan Chesney.

You will notice that our program Sept. 10th is the Take In for the Library Show. This salon style take in is for you to present your entries to the group.

Exhibitions Survey – Larry Rodgers, Director of Exhibitions, mailed a survey 2 weeks ago, and would appreciate your response. Thanks for your support.

Pasadena ARTWALK - October 22nd on Colorado Ave !! I have asked twice for someone to be the coordinator for ARTWALK 2016, and have had only kind offers to assist. Will someone please take this one-day responsibility? Thank you,
