JANUARY 2017

PREZBUZZ

Dear Members and Friends of PSA,

Here we are in the midst of the season of assorted activities that I hope are pleasant for you and yours. I enjoy a lot of the decorations, some of the music and all of the cookies and special dishes. I enjoy seasonal messages of goodwill, and the sign of new light December 21st.

Jackie Steimke, Director of Programs has been working with Stephen Wagner to establish a monthly schedule of art business related topics. Visit our website calendar. The Stephen Wagner workshops for two hours: $20 ($5 to PSA).

The January SALON might be in Altadena, as I am waiting on confirmation from a new host for SALON#2017. It would be one afternoon during MLK Weekend.

The topic will be ARTIST, ART & SOCIAL CONSCIOUSNESS, ART OF THE HEART and/or OF THE GUT. Does that sound interesting? If so, bring art work that is revealing, that makes a statement, or an idea that stirring inside ya !!! If it doesn't sound interesting, come along with a new topic.

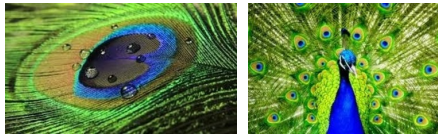

THINK PEACOCKS / PEAHENS / PEACHICKS with or without their habitat, and about LA Arboretum this spring !!!! Consider realism, abstractions, graphics, sculpture, painting, photographic images, or anything you have to submit for a brand new PSA juried exhibition. Larry Rodgers, our Director of Exhibitions, will send you details and CFE soon. The 4 month exhibition will be at the newly renovated library at the L A Arboretum, from March to June.

TAKE SPECIAL CARE and ENJOY THE SEASON !!
