

Dear PSA Members,

I wish you the best in all your pursuits. Thanks to our Exhibitions Committee Leaders: Larry, Rebecca and Susan for being diligent in finding new places for PSA. If you have ideas that would help us develop new venues, contact Larry Rodgers, Director of Exhibitions.

George Miller and I met with the Exec.Dir. of Pasadena Museum of California Art to begin to explore ways to collaborate with PMCA. We are invited to create a list of educational "hands on" workshops that PSA members would present in their Project Room. Having an exhibition at PMCA is not an option at this time. Thanks to Bob Oltman, Co-Founder, for this great contact. If you have ideas for workshops for adults or children, please send your ideas to me. By the way, their current exhibition is exciting. Consider joining PMCA at www.pmcaonline.org

Our second Salon gave artists a good time to present art and exchange ideas in a friendly, supportive space in Jackie's beautiful home. It's rewarding and inspiring to listen to each other's ART-HEART and ART-SPIRIT. The March 20th Salon#3, in Frog Town LA at Steve G's place. Details soon. All artists are welcome.

I want to see PSA grow in new directions by collaborating with art organizations and art institutions. PSA, at 91 years of age, could expand cultural diversity of members, encourage young artists and have medium-specific exhibitions. Come to the March 5th meeting and let's talk.

We need a volunteer to produce the monthly Newsletter. It takes a couple of ours each month, Contact me if you are interested.

Sincerely,

Victor Picou

ARTIST TO ARTIST SALON #3

THE FORCE WITHIN

A 'close encounter' for artists: a supportive time for artists who are passionate about their art and want to share the dialogue. For those whose art reflects "the times" and events of our lives, this is the place for you. Come to the February 6th meeting for more meetings. All artists are welcome.

Date and Time: March 19th, 2:00-5:00 pm

Location: TBA / email the week before
